is filled with awe
at your wonders;
where morning dawns,
where evening fades,
you call forth songs of joy."

Sunday Morning Celebration

May 5, 2024

“Awe and Wonder”

presented by Mitra

Join us In-Person or attend via Streaming at 10:00 AM PT

Dear Devotees,

Yogis say that we are meant to have awe and wonder, powerful transforming experiences that change our lives and bring great joy. The more awe and wonder we experience, the greater the transformation of our sense of self. This morning Mitra leads us in an examination of awe and wonder. Find out how you can experience these glorious, dazzling, mind-stopping states.

If we're really lucky, we find yoga. We open our consciousness to the revelation of Spirit. Suddenly one day, almost always unexpectedly, we have a superconscious moment, a transcendental event. Our normal ego, our sense of who we are, is stunned or shocked, dazzled and transcended, by a new dimension of awareness. We are lifted beyond thoughts and verbal commentary. We can't speak and often can't move. We are surprised in a profound way. We have suddenly entered new territory. Our whole being thrills. Bliss and rapture fill us.

When the profound ecstasy of God falls over you, the body becomes absolutely still, the breath ceases to flow, and the thoughts are quiet — banished, every one, by the magic command of the soul. Then you drink of God's bliss and experience an intoxication of joy that not a thousand draughts of wine could give you...When the Spirit is known, and when we know ourselves as Spirit, there is no land or sea, no earth or sky — all is He. The melting of everything in Spirit is a state no one can describe. A great bliss is felt — eternal fullness of joy and knowledge and love.

There are two new videos from Ramakrishna Ananda this week.

"Let Your Mind Reveal Spirit":

Yogis refer to the mind as a veil which often blocks spiritual awareness.

Explore how witness consciousness leads to realization of soul and Spirit. Discover the beautiful experiences one can find beyond the veil of the mind.

"Dealing with Rascals":

Problem people and situations can bring value, meaning and purpose into our lives. Explore yogic ways to approach challenges.

Discover the blessings that come as we learn our life lessons.
