Dear Devotees,

This morning we dive deeper into the profound insights and spiritual wisdom of Sri Ramakrishna. He tells us: God can be seen, He can be touched. We can even talk with God. And further, God realization is the purpose of life. He often said: I drink no ordinary wine, but the wine of everlasting bliss. Join us this morning as we attune with the wisdom and bliss of Sri Ramakrishna.

M: “He (Sri Ramakrishna) used to say, The goal of human life is to see God. If a person has not seen God, he has achieved nothing. This is the ideal of life and the end of life. Leave it and everything is useless. God first — everything else later. Not the reverse: everything else first and God later. Did he only say the words? No, he himself did it, and he made his intimate disciples do it. They put their faith in his words. That’s why their lives became honey-sweet. Others who are putting their faith in him are receiving their share of it, too, and are receiving peace.

Sri Ramakrishna:

God cannot be seen with these physical eyes. In the course of spiritual discipline, one gets a love body, endowed with love eyes, love ears, and so on. One sees God with those love eyes. One hears the voice of God with those love ears.

There are two new videos from Ramakrishna Ananda this week.

"The Ego Stick": The ego is our sense of self which often comes from a false, inaccurate level of awareness. Our unenlightened ego separates us from others, acting like a barrier. Explore the practice of humility, a necessity on the spiritual path. Discover what it is like to move from an ego focus to a soul perspective.

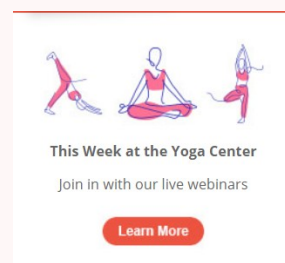

"Relationships — So Essential": Positive,

Way to Fulfillment with a Recognized Yoga Master

constructive relationships are a major influence on our health, happiness and overall well being. It is important to value our relationships and their positive benefits. Consider the goodness that can come to you from a relationship with God.
